April 4th 1713.

Sir

With humble submis-sion I beg leave to lay before your Royal Highness the case of the Indi-viduals on the Establishment of the Tower. The Pay of these Persons was settled in the time of Charles the Second; being then measured on a scale which rendered them superior in point of Provision to the corresponding Office, and in in other Garrison, as the peculiar importance of the lower warrants, since that period, the Expenditures have been gradually increased in other Fortresses, so as not only to do away the burden

 - the Distraction originally intended, but to give in many respects a marked point advantage to those who are placed in Office, ordinary Garrison. The Offices of Costa-

- The 2 Lieutenant-Governor have for
- many years back been bestowed on Pe-
- sons of a Rank which suppresses other
- means of supporting their situation.
- Therefore no addition to their sala-
- ries appears requisite. In the other
- cases, from the Deputy-Governor to the Wardens inclusive, I am persuaded the -ion will be found to deserve your

-al Highness's generous consideration.

That addition be made to the salaries of these persons, it would be expedient to specify that no augmentation should on that account be made to the Intrench Lines received by the Castle.

With the humblest Duty, I remain
Sir Your Royal Highness's
The Prince Rupert. Most devoted servant
