

H. Barclay

5. April 1813

20530

My Dear Friend

I know how overwhelmed you are in business - but I with hopes, the warmest and most grateful acknowledgments that a devoted friend can bestow, will find you for five minutes sufficiently engaged to listen to the overflowings of a heart which has never and never will cease to regard you as his only friend.
- but if I cannot see you then accept of this the only means I have of expressing my gratitude. and when necessity of space has

Separated me from you
- My prayers shall be offered up to the Throne of Mercy for your happiness & wellfare

Ever affectionately and gratefully your truly
H. Barclay

Monday
5. April 1813.