

J. Byerley to Col. McKeanow

Apr. 13 1813

20545 - 6

My dear Sir

Having resided long in various parts of the Continent I should like to be attached to the suite of one of the Royal Dukes - I can fight a little & write a little & in either or both of these capacities I shall be proud of lending my feeble aid in giving the last blow to the great destroyer My introduction to Mackintosh will prove I am well

J. B. Yerley to Col. McCleahow

Apr. 13 1813

20546

acquainted with his policy in any capacity to which I & of my Seal & Attachments am competent any Section to H.H. the Prince Regent shall prove me not an occasion is only wanting to manifest it more than I have done

The retirement of the Marquis Wellesley prevents me from awaiting myself of your kind introduction to Welling Smith & I trust
You will not deem me impertinent in soliciting your powerful interest on this occasion - I do not ask for high or lucrative fees but merely to employed

My pamphlet indicating H.H. the Prince I hope to have the honor of sending to you

I have the honor to be
Dear Sir

most respectfully
Yours truly
J. B. Yerley

25 Hatton Garden
13 April 1813

J. Byrd
13. April 1813