85 Flatter Garden

April 15 / 13.

Dear Sir,

Pardon me for stating, that if you could prevail upon the Prince Regent to allow me, through your medium, the Loan of £150 at this time, it would save me and mine from much serious consequences, and be the means of re-animating in His Royal Highness's service a man who has been uniformly zealous for the interest of the Prince and his Friends. The acknowledgment shall be given to you for its re-payment in the course of a twelvemonth; and I would pledge myself thus to close all pecuniary concerns whatever for efforts of attachment which have always <sup>found</sup> warmly commended.

A long series of illness, and other causes which can be mentioned when I have the pleasure of seeing you,

you, induce me reluctantly to impose this kind task ~~upon~~ upon your friendship; and, with your permission, I'll wait upon you between Ten and Eleven o'clock next Monday

I am Dear Sir

With sentiments of the greatest regard

Ever yours faithfully

R. Stewart

Right Honourable
John W. Mahon Esq.
