

J. Byrley
15. April 1713.

20552

25 Dotten Garden

15 April 1713

Dear Sir

I have now the honor of transmitting you my defence of ~~the~~ the Prince Regent which I trust I have executed in a manner to merit the approbation of His Royal Highness but should it so unfortunately happen that I may in any one instance have mistaken the line of Defence most agreeable to His Royal Highness I will instantly commit the whole impression to the flames: I trust however that it will be found the reverse of this.

I have the honor to be My Dear Sir

Your most faithful & grateful humble
Byrley

