

Ld. Moira to Col. Ke Mahow

20559-60

April 10th 1813.

My Dear Friend

A former change
of bird dispatches is in great haste;
the letter is open; I will be at sea in an hour.

After my leave the duty of the Prince.
I assure him that nothing can ever weaken my devotion to him & that I depart with the most respectfully affectionate anxiety for his welfare.

 They send the packets to Eden & Miss.
 Ed. Ho writes a most cordial letter to me from Heligoland: and, as he certainly will call at Carlton House, I transmit the answer to you for him.

God bless you, my dear friend.

Yours ever
 Thomas

Mr. Phoen will be pretty good evidence to the Court that the policy towards the Princ is not to show him attachment or under his service.
