20 April 1813 -

Dear Sir -

A circumstance has most recently and most fortuitously come to my knowledge and of its authenticity I have no doubt. That a Mr. Swer, the Duke of Cumberland's Agent is in actual treaty for the Disposal of a Seat, and the Price a mere trifle for such an object, unconditionally as to voting.
Now as it is a matter of the greatest confidence and Secrecy I would not without your Order, or recommendation, show any thing of the particulars, if you can offer some to give me as to put me in possession of the particular conditions to, I shall be greatly gratefully ^{obliged} and I am Dear Sir

Yours sincerely & truly Thomas Scott
