(Private)

Dear Sir,

You may well remember, that on a former occasion when I was indebted to your friendly efforts, I declined every reference to any other person than yourself in matters respecting His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Suffer me therefore, at this extreme crisis, to draw upon you, at any date or dates you please, for One Hundred Pounds; and thus to close at once all pecuniary affairs. I promise faithfully to return it to you in the course of nine or twelve months; and at will at this time render me uncommon service. I hope you will consider my past exertions in favour of the Pr. Regt and yourself as some degree entitled to the indulgence of such a Loan.

Allow me to wait upon you tomorrow morning for this purpose; and thus oblige me

Ever yours faithfully
P. Stewart.

Right Honourable
John O'Mahon Esq.
