

Rev. Sir Robt. Peat to Col. McClelland

A.A. No. 276.

20610 - 1

12 May 1813

Sir Robert Peat presents his respectful compliments to Colonel Mr. Mahon; requests to have the Honour of a few Minutes conversation with him respecting an intended Publication which has come to Sir Robert's notice relating to the Prince of Wales! which in his opinion may produce much irritation on the Public Mind.

Altho' Sir Robert never had the Honour of being presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent yet from having been so many years upon his list of Chaplains, and the obligation he is under, added to other circumstances, he cannot help feeling much interested in any thing that concerns the Prince.

Sir Robert trusts this feeling will apologise (if an apology be necessary) for interfering in a subject, which concerns him, no further, than in shewing his Desire to seize every, even the most trifling, occasion, of proving his attachment to the Prince.

and the obligation he is under, for the polite manner, in which Colonel McMahon received him at Carlton House.

Sir Robert will wait on Colonel McMahon tomorrow at 11 O'clock, and take the chance of finding him disengaged.
