May 13. 1813.

My dear friend, I have seen the Duke of R. & spoken with him at length upon the subject on which the Prince is so kindly anxious. - I found the Duke very well disposed to hear every thing I could say, and he made no mention to me of his wish to have his Regiment again, but he repeatedly said that he considered himself as no longer in the service, that his mind was made up to it, and he thought it better that the matter should re-main as it is & be no longer agitated. -

Yours affl.
