My dear Sir,

I have this morning received a Letter from the Duke of Richmond and in compliance with His Grace's desire I have to communicate to you the following Extract from it -

" I beg you will be good enough to communicate through Colonel Mac Mahon my Obligation to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent for having so kindly understood I bear my account of the transaction with sad remorse, and assure His Royal

"Regrets that I felt the greatest "satisfaction in finding that my conduct
"has met with his approbation"

I have the honor to be

My dear Sir

Yours very faithfully & obedient servant

Robert Pol
