Sir

I flatter'd my self to have had the honor of speaking to your Royal Highness either last night, or if I had fortunately seen you at Mr. Wharton's the night before, but having been disappointed I think it my Duty & I am sure it is my Inclination to trouble your Royal Highness with a few lines to inform you that all idea of Alliance between Georgiana & Colonel Berkeley is at an end. Your Royal Highness condescended to converse with me upon this subject so graciously & with so much interest that I never can express sufficiently the gratitude I feel towards your Royal Highness & I hope this will plead my excuse for thus venturing to trespass upon your time. I have the honor to be Sir with the greatest Respect

Your Royal Highness's
Most devoted & obliged Humble Servant
