

T. Byerley

A.A. No. 286.

20670

My dear Sir

If you know the pressing urgency of my affairs at this moment you would I am sure pardon my importunity I have the pleasure of enclosing you a Draft for £50 as security It is not improbable that I may be able in a fortnight not only to pay this but the former as I am in treaty for the sale of my M.S. If you do not feel it right from the former disappointment what you please in part of it will be gratefully considered The truth is my time & little resources have been expended in the good faith but le bon temps viendra & if you only wait on for a little time all will be right I am Dear Sir your obedient servant

me in the morning for tomorrow is of the utmost importance to me.

I have the honor to be

and dear Sir

Yours most gratefully

Henry

J. B. Brooke Esq.

Holborn

10 June 1813