My dear Sir,

I have just received the enclosed letter from the Duke of Richmond, which I have sent to you in order that you may take an opportunity of submitting it to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

I shall not fail to transmit the joint opinion of the Attorney and Solicitor General of Ireland alluded to in His Grace's letter immediately upon its receipt, or if it should be the Pleasure of His Royal Highness to wait in person upon him. I have the honor to be
Dear Sir
Your very faithful Servant
Robert Peel.

The W. Gentle
Wm. H. Mahon.
