

Ld. Graves to Col. H. K. K. K.

20727-8

Bishops Court, near Baker
July 14th 1913.

My dear MacMahon/

A Thousand Thanks for your kind letter of this morning, and for all your friendly and strenuous exertions in my behalf. It was truly amiable of you, "to think it best to show the P. R. my Note" - I am penetrated at H. R. H.'s kind indulgence in sending me such a message - and beg to return through you to H.
R. H., my most humble, and grateful duty. - From a

Ad. Graves to Col. Hockahow

Copy of the Gazette which Coluthus sent me this morning, I see that notwithstanding all you said of H. M. H. The Regents said commands, that I should be gazetted in the form of the Earl of Ormonde - and Lord Be la wane in the form of Lord Whitworth - I see by the Gazette it is exactly the contrary - Lord Be la wane standing in that official paper as succeeding Lord Ormonde, & myself as succeeding Lord Whitworth - I have written by to days

20728
Post to Coluthus to request he would rectify this mistake - as he must recollect that I should have had my appointment immediately after the resignation of Lord Ormonde, by the express command of our Royal Master, had not Lord Liverpool requested that the appointment might be put off till Midsummer, or the end of the Session -

I am really ashamed to disturb you to fatigue yourself with any further interference, I am so grateful to you for all that you have already done, that I am unwilling to saddle

Low Gears
you with more business in this Business - ^{July 14. 1873.} But should you have an opportunity of seeing Lord Liverpool - or Antislavery I should be infinitely obliged to you if you could prevail on either of them to place me where it was H. R. H. The Prime Minister would indicate that I should ~~organize~~ stand - And I only fear that the ^{intended} date of my appointment & salary will be equally disregarded at The Treasury -
With sincere regards, and many apologies for all this rattle & rattle I am my dear Friend,
Most faithfully Yours
G. Jones
