

The Earl of Roden

July 21. 1813

20742

Dublin July 21. 1813.

My Dear Colonel

In consequence of His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent's gracious approbation of the Intention of the Irish Nation to place a Public Testimonial in the Metropolis of Ireland in commemoration of their gallant Countryman the Marshall Marquis of Wellington's Brilliant military Achievements; I yesterday from the Chair of a Meeting assembled for <sup>that</sup> Purpose, Stated His Royal Highness's wishes to contribute to the Undertaking, which was received with every expression of Gratitude and Respect.

By Order
A. McMahon.

I have by this Dispatch

enclosed their Proceedings on the Subject which we request you will do us the Honor to lay before His Royal Highness, and hope <sup>they</sup> will meet with his approbation.

any communication you will be pleased to make to me, on the Subject you will be so good to address to me in Dublin.

I beg you will always Believe me My Dear Colonel with truth & regard your faithfull humble Servant

Roden