Dear Sir I have the honour to enclose a letter I received last night, from a lady who resides near Hammer-smith. Tho I am not acquainted with her, I am convinced she is the daughter of Captain Flooker of the 59th Regiment who at the time of his death was a very old, & most respectable officer.

My brother General Leslie, who was for many years in the Fifty-ninth Regiment, was well acquainted with Captain Flooker, and I dare say were he in London, would be happy to give any testimony in his power, to confirm the

The character given of him by his Daughters Miss General Leslie is now in Scotland.

As Mrs Clarke has mentioned your name in the enclosed letter, I take the liberty of sending it you, which I hope you will forgive; I am truly sorry I gave you the trouble to send to me respecting the ticket. Indeed my own application was so late to you, for the tickets of admiration to the Vauxhall fête, that I scarce expected to be so fortunate as to get one, & am equally obliged to you. And have the honour to be

Dear Sir, Yours very faithful Servant
