(Extract.)

Sir John Macpherson - to Sir George Dallas.

15th July; at night.

Brompton.

My dear Sir George,

After our satisfactory conversation at your house this evening, I wrote to Mr. Pecheux that you would do what his friends wished. In fact I am confident that you will attend the Court to-morrow, to support Government in carrying quietly through the Court the acceptance of the Charter. May it pass unanimous! You cannot render a better service to Government, to the Company, and let me add, to public credit.

Mr. Pecheux will be with you at nine to-morrow. He is good man whom I have known and esteemed long. He is the efficient India Board Secretary, as his reputation to me and to you proves. Let, my friend, like yourself; the Administration and the Company must be grateful to you.

Yours ever

(signed) John Macpherson.
