

Bloomfield
W. H. Smythe to Col. ~~Reckahan~~
G 20789

20835 - 6

30 Aug<sup>t</sup> - 1813

Sir

you cannot be a stranger to the existence of two letters written some years ago - the one from His
- - The R - - the other from Mrs W - - it is not requisite that you should be informed how those letters ever fell into the hands of those who took correct copies of them - but those copies are now at your disposal if you think proper - whatever importance may be attached to them - or however trivial the value of them may be considered by Col. M<sup>r</sup> A. who has been written to on the subject, a considerable sum has been offered for them by persons well disposed to make an ungenerous use of them - those who possess them are anxious to make every sacra-fice to that respect and loyalty they boast of entertaining for - - - and therefore they have waited with great patience an answer from Col. M. - his desiring of that gentleman feeling the subject as he ought - they very reluctantly -ly apply to you - were the documents in question of no consequence it could not be worth the while of any person to offer a sum of money for them - unless we receive your answer in the course of this week - we shall certainly consider ourselves sanctioned by your Grace to publish them. -

Yours truly,
your obedient servant
W. R. Smythe

Bloomfield
W. H. Smythe to Col. ~~Kebleton~~
Q 20789

20836

re they in answer
of gentlemen
very reluctant
to in question
with the
of money
over the
with certainty
our share
respect
servant
the

B. S.
a line in the Morning Post addressed to W. H. S. will be attended to.

38838

W. H. Smythe

30. Aug. 1813

Carlton House

Col. Bloomfield

