My Dear friend

When I saw you in Town, I forgot to put the enclosed into y^r. hands. I had in my letter told her that you were very desirous to oblige her; & you see what letters she writes. Lord Liverpool was strongly of opinion that I had better avoid further communication with her. You told me to write warmly. Do pray give me one line
The N^o. 11 - J. M. Mason to

To say whether the letter I left at your home was such as you had wished me to write.

You shall hear from me the next moment I hear from Lord Thomson.

Believe me my dear friend
Ever most affly
Your servant
