2nd Oct^r 1913

My Dear friend

Upon looking over my Papers I found the letter which I showed you from Mr.
Manners. It is so satis-factory for its present pur-pose that I again put it into your hands, advising you at the same time to write to Mr Manners yourself with a view to recall his recollecting his own ideas respecting

C. Arbuthnot to Col. Mc Mahon respecting the expediency of of brother being the Master of the Rolls whenever there was a vacancy.

Friend of D. Manners
the Duke of Rutland's Chevalier Park Newmarket.

I have already written D. Manners, but it will not be amiss for you to let him know that thro' of agency the present Master of the Rolls might be induced to resign.

Pray

Pray tell Mrs. Mc Mahon with my very best regards that I have had Mr. Macnamara with me, & that I have paid him all the attention which he can desire.

I have not seen the R. D. Lowther since with him every day. He & Croker are going to D. Hamonth in Suffolk. This is a sort of mess which is not very reputable, & I don't at all fancy Mr. Brown's notion that I give news. Y^r new Montagu Turnover

Arbuthnot

P.S. The R is now sending for Harrison to Carlton House.

Harrison is a very good Man, but I cannot think it for the Prince's interest to be taking up every new Person.
