

D<sup>r</sup> Butler

Oct. 6. 1813.

20958

Sir

From the Experience of your Royal Highness Kindness and Condescension to me I humbly presume to repeat to your Royal a Request I have already addressed to you under Cover to Colonel Mac Mahon in Regard to the Living of Bradford. By the Promotion of Doctor Huxley to the See of London it is now vacant and in the Gift of the Crown and adjoins the Living of Frampton near Dorchester where I now reside, as your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to express your good Wishes towards me a Word in my favour from your Royal Highness w<sup>d</sup> secure me this make me comfortable for Life and be ever remembered with the most heartfelt gratitude by your Royal Highness's most dutiful and most devoted humble servant

William Butler

Frampton near Dorchester

October Sixth 1813