Sir,

I did Myself the honor of ad-dressing You several times much contrary to my inclination, owing to the profuse of distress the crippled state to which I am reduced by the barbarity and savage treatment of a gang of footpads, which prevents Me from following my Profession, & the sufferings I must necessarily endure for Mrs Bellamy and my Family, who are sinking under the most accumulated despair, and in want of the comforts of life, relying upon your goodness of heart and forgiveness, from the cruel circum-

circumstances attending my unhappy father the small donation of a pound sterling which if you would be so good as to remit me by return of the post, would double the obligation, & ^{afford} comfort & consolation to myself, Mrs Bellamy, & dear dependant family, and be immediately acknowledged I beg leave to subscribe myself

Sr,
Your most obedient humble servant
Humphrey Bellamy
Only Son of the late Humphrey Bellamy Esq of Warfield in Berkshire & late an Officer in the Royal Horse Guards
& the Queens
Light Dragoon
