Sir,

The Memorial which you were pleased to advise should be laid before His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, has been presented by Lord Sidmouth, who has honored me with the information, and that "His Royal Highness has not been pleased to signify any Commands thereupon. I therefore entreat your indulgent Interposition with His Royal Highness, in behalf of my Family whos

are at this moment labouring under a variety of wretchedness.

I have the honor to Enclose a Certificate both to satisfy you Sir, as to what I advanced before Respecting His late Grace the Duke of Devonshire, and to excite your kind consideration, which shall never be obliterated whilst I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most grateful obedient humble Servant

M. Redman Esq
