Calcutta 20th 19th 1813.

My Dear Friend

This letter will be delivered to you by L^{td} Candlish of the Shipping Castle. The enclosed is to solicit the Prince to interest himself for the Candlish's Protection and I have thought it more delicate to send that letter under cover to you than to put it at once into Mr Cand-lish's hands. Indeed, as you must at all events have had the charge of ushering it to the Prince, this is the procedure best calculated for convenience. Mr Candlish is a very respectable Officer, with scarcely a chance of Punition by by some such accident as that of by taking him by the hand.

I am sure the Prince will not think this a trespass on his good

- resp.

Faithfully yours

Moira
