

J. S. Smith
23^o Oct. 1813.

21034

Sir I hope you will pardon the Liberty I take in again trespassing on your Goodness, but we most earnestly entreat you to solicit his Royal Highness the Prince Regent to give you an answer to my Request. I can only assure you that unless I have something to assist me in a few Days I shall be under the necessity of going to prison. Pray do every thing in your Power to serve me

I am
Yours most obliged
J. S. Smith
Oct 23. 1813

The Right Honble Col. In W. Smith

Blank rectangular area at the top of the page.

Large rectangular area containing faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is illegible due to fading and mirroring.

Rectangular area at the bottom of the main text block, appearing as a blank space or very faint text.