Dear Sir

I trust you will believe me when I assure you, it is with no small degree of pain that I presume to offer myself to your recollection so soon. after the repeated assurances of your good intentions towards me, but I am in hopes my situation, which I have fully explained to Mr. Hagan on Monday, added to the circumstances of the time which you were pleased to name that My

appointment should take place having expired, will plead my excuse - In the full hope that you will use your influence in time to save me from greater difficulties. I have the Honor to remain Dear Sir,

your most faithful and very Obedient Servant,

James Armstrong
