

Chas. Wesley to Col. MacMahon -

Oct. 28 1813

21046

Mr. Wesley Presents his Compliments to Col. MacMahon not having been favoured with an answer, will be extremely obliged to the Colonel, if he will appoint a time when Mr. Wesley can have the honor of waiting on him for a few minutes. The Secretary called, and informed Mr. W. he should hear from the Colonel, last week, and Mr. P. writes from the multiplicity of Col. MacMahon's engagements it might have slipped his memory.
