Right Honorable Sir

I called some time ago. I had the honor of addressing you last but found you had gone to Cheltenham; If now your honor would condescend to order me on the commensariat list for any service my gratitude to you would never cease but act as a powerful stimulus in the discharge of any duty it may require. - you knowing Mr. Stackpole to whom my mother introduced me, and my proving to your honor my good character thro' life give me hopes you will comply with this my humble request, add to this your honor's promise to me - and my friends in London tell me if I have proved to you my good character, they are sure you will take this my request into your most gracious mind - wishing you many returning seasons of health, and the blessing of Divine Providence. I entreat the Honor to subscribe myself

Right Honorable Sir

Your most Obedient and very Humble Serv^t

Wm. Reardon

London 1st Nov: 1813

P.S. I will take the liberty of waiting on your honor, on Thursday for an answer.

The Right Honorable John M^r Mason
