November 4th 1813

My Dear Sir,

May I request you to inform me, if you think there would be any impropriety in my addressing His Royal Highness The Prince Regent to solicit the situation of Commissioner of the Lottery.

I assure you I would not address His Royal Highness, but I am in such very great distress, that I have not sufficient to subsist my Family, which is very large, six Children.

May I request you will favour me with an answer, directed to the General Post

Office, Bermondsey Street, B. Comondsey

I have the Honour to be

My Dear Sir your very
Obedient Serv<sup>t</sup>

John Chambers.
