

Enclosure

to Gen. R. V. Douglas to hold at bridge -

21085-6

35 St. James's St.
Nov. 3. 1813.

My Lord,
It is with much re-sistance I should have said this again, but the letter you per-mitted me to address you to be laid before the Prince Regent has now been received by Mr.
Macmahon, and I am fearful it may have been lost in going to the Post.

I take the liberty of enclosing another copy to your Lordship, and may I be =

Enclosure

H. Genl. R. V. Douglas to be Lxbridge-

21086

- that one more your powerful aid to set me right in to way important as quarter -

At Marmarone, whom I have just left, only wants to receive the letter from your Lordship to lay it before the Council - & your Lordship had the goodness to say also that you would write a few lines to His Royal Highness saying such a paper would be laid before him, and giving at the same time such testimonial as you felt justified in doing of my general Character as a Soldier; which, I trust, has always been such as entitles me to a continuance of the same good Opinion I have hitherto enjoyed in the Service.

Pray your Lordship to believe me, Y^r. most faithful & obedient Servant
R. V. Douglas
Care of Oxford

3 Nov 1813