39 Regent's Street Nov. 7. 1813.

Sir, As I see it mentioned from the Lord Chamberlain's office, that the Regent will hold a levee at Carlton House on Thursday next at 2 o'clock. Will you have the goodness to say whether you would advise me on that day, personally to present my Narrative of the Campaign in Russia? or if it is commonly done, without His Royal Highness being apprized and permitting it. at any rate, I mean to attend, and will feel obliged if you will give me any advice relative thereto. I am, Sir, with most respectful regards,
Your obedient servant,
Charles M. Mahon.

I have the honor to be Sir your obed^t serv^t
R. H. Porter
