

The Petition of James Greenfield, late of Promenade Grove, Brighton.

Most humbly sheweth,

That your Petitioner was some few years ago graciously favored with Your Royal Highness's Patronage, when keeping the Promenade Grove at Brighton.

That your Petitioner has since that period been in the habit of contracting with Parties for the building of Houses &c, being a Carpenter by Profession.

That your Petitioner has in the course of these last few years met with many reverses and misfortunes in his mechanical pursuits and whose Circumstances are so reduced as to oblige him shortly to work as Journeyman in his profession, which will inevitably complete his ruin for ever, unless he can prevail on Your Royal Highness in your usual great and benevolent goodness to appoint him an Assistant

Deputy

Deputy Barrack Master, or any other situation which Your Royal Highness may think proper.

Your Petitioner humbly craves and implores the compassion of Your Royal Highness, and to be permitted to rely on your great goodness, and as in duty bound shall always pray.

James Greenfield
Guernsey November 16th 1813. ...
Smith Street.

To
His Royal Highness
Prince Regent.
