No 2. Abbey Street, Bermondsey
November. 16. 1813.

Sir,

I hope Your Royal Highness will Pardon the Liberty I take in presuming to address You, which nothing but real distress could induce me to do, literally not being able to procure the common necessaries of Life.

Under these distressing Circumstances, may I solicit,
Your Royal Highness to have me appointed to some situation that would give me the means of Existence.

I have the Honour to be Sir, with every Sentiment of Duty & Respect, Your Royal Highness most Obedient & Devoted Subject and Servant

To His Royal Highness

The Prince Regent

John Chambers.
