Sr.

I humbly beg leave to inclose a line to you, to say That, prior to my Lord Moria's leaving England, his Lordship was graciously pleased to acquaint me that he left my name with you, in order that in his Lordship's absence I might call upon you as my friend to, and one by your advice.

Being very uncomfortable in the Regiment Ever since my Lord went for India; on account of Colonel Beaufoy's treatment; not only to myself but, all the officers who have had the honor of my Lord's appointment therein. I have taken the liberty, twice before this to, call upon you; and am now waiting to be honored with an interview to, alleviate my present unhappy feelings occasioned only by Col. Beaufoy - who by gross abuses - have ~~been~~ driven out of his Regiment many officers so appointed.

I have the honor to be

Sr.

With the highest respect Your most obedient
Devoted Servant
