18 Nov 1813

I Humbly beg your Pardon Sir for throubling of you a second time but my very distress ing situation I am in dear Sir there been obliged to come to London to make out my husband to make Sir Poyles felt on my blame in Solomon Davis house No 5 Arnevell Place Bath Sir by his Cruell treatment to me and my poor Child has deprived me of every means of getting my bread for myself and poor Child Sir I stated my petch situation to His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent and I inclosed Lord Halle letter to His Royal Highness His Royal Highness with the greatest humnity condescended to acknowledge my petition and sent an order to His Royal Highness Sollicitor to render me any service

Had in need of His Royal Highness Soleader sent me a letter to come to spoke to him I went and brought all my letters sir as soon as he spoke to me he asked me if I was an Irish woman I answered him I was he asked me if my husband was an Irish man I replied sir he was of burrowes set then he would not look at any of my letters but told me to send to Lady Butler to Bath to raise a prescription for me and to bring it to him and he would add His Royal Highness might to be Peter and me Lord Hall Letter and honor which I thought very hard sir as I was Irish not to assist me in such a distress state as myself and poor little girl is in and I know not how to help us out of it but I still trust to the mercy of and honor in Sir as in me in myself and I know

out of it rarity of

of god god he will praise a friend for me and my poor child to trust me thru myretched situation as I have not brought on myself and poor child and the poor widow woman I am with sit bears the streets Contractor who has devised her poor fear with me in hopes god would praise a friend for me to end le me to return to my poor child as I cannot find my General Herbert [redacted] in hopes sir I would be able [redacted] when I received the letter [redacted] Royal Highness soliciter to assist and never gave me one farthing but the Postage of his letters Sir he best man which I have the letters Sir I hope in god Sir you will pardon me for the liberty I have taken to trouble you Sir I call of your Honours house and the servant to me their was no answer Sir I remain
