Dear Sir

From a conversation I have had with our mutual friend Mr. Hogan. I am extremely concerned to find, that the letter which I had the honor of addressing to you respecting the Company in the Militia, which you were kind enough to offer me, should have met with a very misinterpretation - I now beg leave to assure you, that my only desire was, to point out to you, the great uncertainty of a Company in the Militia being serviceable - I have now to intreat of you Sir, to believe me when I assure you, that I am most willing to leave the whole of my care in your hands, and that I give most implicit faith to you kind intentions towards me.

I have the Honor to remain

Dear Sir - your devoted and very Humble Servant.

John Armstrong
