

Ld. Uxbridge to Duke of Clarence -

21250-1

Brussels Dec. 18th
1813

Sir

I have been honoured by Your Royal Highness's letter and by to offer my best thanks for the obliging manner in which you have conveyed the Prince Regent's answer to my letter.

Having been assured of the excesses with which His Royal Highness would seize any opportunity that might present, of liberating my Brother, I felt I should not be justified in withholding

Ld. W

2125

The communication I had received, at the same time I am confident The Prince Agent will acquit me of the most minute desire to engage His Royal Highness, in any communication with the French Government, which might be derogatory from His Dignity or which might deviate from the firm and improving line of conduct that has been so, consistently and so successfully adopted towards France.

Lady Elizabeth and Lady Emily verily have changed me

Ld. Uxbridge to Duke of Clarence

21251

Wishes to your Royal Highness their high sense of your kind remembrance.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Royal Highness
Most faithful and obedient servant

Uxbridge

Sir Royal Highness
The Duke of Clarence

and
D. 100. 10013.