Belvoir Castle
Tuesday Jan. 11
1814

The Duchess D. of Rutland presents her Compl<sup>ts</sup> to Gen<sup>l</sup> General Turner & takes the liberty of troubling him to request to know how the Prince Regent does after his journey & how he got to London this Day as the cold is intense & it has snowed very much; and the Duke & Duchess of Rutland as well as the D<sup>s</sup> D. feel very anxious to know that His Royal Highness has not suffered from his most gracious Visit to Belvoir Castle, where he made them & every part of the Family so happy, & has if possible increased their feelings of respectful Attachment to him by his very great kindness & Condescension which will ever be engraven on their Minds.

The Duke & D<sup>s</sup> & D<sup>s</sup> D. of Rutland will be very much obliged to Gen<sup>l</sup> General Turner if he will present their respectful Duty to the Prince Regent.
