9/6,

His Royal Highness
The Prince Regent

2<sup>c</sup> — 2<sup>d</sup> — 2<sup>d</sup> — 2<sup>d</sup>.

The Memorial of Alexander Gray late a Captain in the 77th Regiment, graciously showing That your Royal Highness's Memorialist has had the Honour of serving His Majesty in the West & East Indies for nearly seven ten years - in the latter period of service he has had the happiness to be Major of Brigade to Officers of the most distinguished reputation, but more so more - in India in Earl Cornwallis's Campaigns and the Campaign which annihilated Tipoo Sultan, and added the Kingdom of Mysore to the interest of British India.

Few Soldiers have entered the Service at an earlier period, having been in Action, as an Officer, at the Age of thirteen, and few have suffered more by that Service during a period of twenty three years, at home and abroad - authenticated as it is, by General Sir Robert Abercromby - Lieut. Gen<sup>l</sup> Sir Samuel Auchmuty - Major Gen<sup>l</sup> Dundas - Major
Gen<sup>l</sup> of the Madras Army - to induce the Memorialist in soliciting the gracious consideration of the Most Excellent Beauty for your Royal Highness's Pardon for the loss of his Side and Leg in the Field before the Enemy.
