

Capt of Harcourt
26. May 1814.

21423

Sir

Harcourt House
26. May 1814

Having been informed it is Your Royal Highness's intention to have a Naval Review at Portsmouth, I had much wished to have the honour of your audience, in order to know whether the Government House could afford any accommodation to Your Royal Highness; at the same time I began to express my apprehension, that the State of my Health from the remains of the Great may disable me from paying my personal attendance
there upon Your Royal Highness, which both my duty and inclination would so far as I can dictate.

They leave to add though the House is nearly unfurnished, I apprehend any quantity of Furniture may be procured at Portsmouth at the shortest notice.

I have the honour to be with the profoundest respect

Sir
Your Royal Highness's most attached and most obedient humble servant

Garratt
