

Very Rev. Charles Henry Hall, Dean of Christ Church Oxford.

21467

My Dear Sir, I came last night to London, and I find no report so prevalent, that his Royal Highness the Prince Regent intends to accompany the Emperor of Russia in a visit to the University of Oxford, that I cannot lose a moment in reporting you to offer with my humble duty to his Royal Highness the use of the Deanery at Christ Church, during his stay. On all former occasions, whenever the University has been fortunate enough to receive any branches of his Royal Family within her walls, it has been customary for them to attend to reside in Christ Church and I shall be extremely mortified if we to lose this distinguished name upon an occasion so gratifying to the University as a visit from his Royal Highness must necessarily be.

I am come to town for the purpose of attending Students from Westminster, which will return on the Wednesday, and in the course of that time I should be particularly obliged to you to inform me what his Royal Highness will be graciously pleased to accept such accommodations as the Deanery affords:

I am, Sir, Dear Sir
and am, as faithfully, Charles Henry Hall

at the Deanery Westminster.
