

Joseph Fox to Col. McKeachon

A.A. No. 543

21664 - 5

Argyll Street

April 4. 1815.

Sir

I take the liberty in the name of the Committee of the British & Foreign School Society to request you will have the goodness to lay before His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, a copy of the last report of the Society.

I am happy to be able to state that the present prospects of this useful Institution afford the most lively satisfaction to its Patrons - It has not only dispersed the blessing of Education to the inhabitants of the British Empire but has also attracted the attention, and excited the imitation of the States of the Continent.

A variety of considerations induce the Committee to request the favour of giving you information on several important points - Last year unfortunately the annual subscription of the Prince Regent was perverted from its true destination - this requires to be explained -

Mr Allen the Treasurer of the Society has been appointed with myself as a deputation to wait upon you - Mr Allen is the Gentleman who had the honour of presenting the Address of the Society of Friends in the Peace, to the Prince Regent, and also of conducting the Emperor of Russia last Spring to the Duke's meeting.

I believe he is known to you - he has requested me to state that at this period he is occupied in the delivery of his lectures on Chemistry and other indispensable engagements every forenoon, in this week except Saturday - and the Friday & Saturday of next week - and he trusts you will pardon him for intrusting the favour of your selecting one of these days for your appointment to see us.

I am Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

Colonel McMahon
