

Anne Kece

Apr. 5 1815

21670

I am extremely sorry to trouble you on the subject of this letter - but particular circumstances oblige me to do so - May I therefore request you will have the goodness to settle the balance of my account - Nothing but urgent occasions would I induce me to an application so contrary to my own feelings - I for which I

07819
15
beg to make many apologies - I have the honor to be Sir Yours most Obedient

Anne Mee

April the 5th 1715.

Wm Broucker