

Ld Chancellor to H.R.H.

21678

The Lord Chancellor, with his humble Duty, writes in the House of Lords, & sends from thence, to save time, a letter to his Royal Highness The Duke of Cumberland, according to what his Royal Highness was graciously pleas'd to suggest yesterday. If his Royal Highness is pleas'd to approve it & to send it, the Chancellor humbly requests that the Prince Regent will be pleas'd to allow one of his confidential Secretaries to make a copy of it for the Chancellor, as he has not time to copy it himself, whilst he is listening to Counsel, & he understood that the Prince Regent wishes to send the Messenger to day.
House of Lords
