Stains Middlesex June 21st 1815 -

Sir

Have the goodness to make my Duty known to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent:— that on Saturday next the 24th Ins^t the Exhibition of the Royal Academy will close for this season; but the works of art Exhibited will not be removed untill Tuesday 27th and I hope this arrangement will meet the pleasure of the Prince Regent.

I shall be in London at my House in Newman Street on Thursday (to morrow) when, should there be any comments respecting the Regent's pleasure, I shall be proud of the honor to receive them.

With great respect, I have the honor to be

Sir

Your obliged and obedient
Humble ser^t
