Downing Street
Aug. 1st 1815

Lord Bathurst has the Honour of submitting to your Royal Highness a letter from Mr James, by which your Royal Highness will see the result of the representations which Lord Bathurst directed to be made, in obedience to your Royal Highness's Command, respecting the Quinquets.

If your Royal Highness should be graciously pleas'd to express a wish that the King of the Netherlands should keep some of them, Lord Bathurst will be pleas'd that your Royal Highness's wishes should be convey'd in a satisfactory way to His Majesty
