Let Anglessey

3 Aug 1815

Sir

Your Royal Highness will see by the enclosed that The Duke of Cumberland will not get the letter so soon as is desirable.

It is however most important that His Royal Highness be in possession of it before You see him, & yet still more important that Your Royal Highness should take no step by which it might be imagined that You are privy to it. As I. is equally anxious that I should not express any suspicion to Thomson upon the subject, as he would not ~~think~~ think that I had been in commu-nication with Your Royal Highness about it.

Could Your Royal Highness find some pretext for sending a messenger to the Duke of Cumberland, upon which occasion You would direct

Thou shalt forward all his letters and papers, which would receive his receiving The letters, or till your Royal Highness leave the matter to Chance.

I am much better to day and have the honor to remain
