Sir

From the calamity which has so recently befallen me, and a continuation of bad health, I have been rendered entirely incapable to reply to the letter of the 1st Inst: which I had the honor to receive from you at Oxford, until this moment altho I have not neglected its contents, & herewith I beg leave to return you that Letter.

I am truly concerned to state that the same impediments are in the way of the proposal to confer a Peerage on Lady Manners, as applied to the grant of a Peerage to yourself.

With respect to the wish you express for a Commission in the Guards for your third Son, I am well convinced that the Prince Regent will have no difficulty in desiring His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief to take the earliest opportunity of giving effect to it. I am further to state that whatever pecuniary claims, you may justly conceive yourself to have upon the Prince Regent, will I have no doubt upon being stated meet with pleasure all the Consideration from His Royal Highness which may be due to them.

I have the honor to be

Sir

With great respect & esteem

Your faithful & obed^t Serv^t
