November 18 1815

Mr. Goldsmith presents his humble Respects to Colonel McMahon, begs leave to return her most grateful thanks for the honor he has conferred upon her late husband's works by his name, a name honored and esteemed which Mr. Goldsmith sets the highest value on.

Mr. Goldsmith will be extremely obliged for the Memorial and acknowledgment she had the Honor of enclosing for His Royal Highness to whom she looked up as the Patron of distinguished literary character and flattered herself through His Royal Highness's goodness the nearest relation the late Doctor Goldsmith had would have been appointed to an Embassy Mr. Goldsmith would not again thank or Colonel McMahon because were she not anxious to get the Recommendation. it would not be easy for her to procure another should Colonel Mr. Mehan feel no objection it will add to her obligation in having the goodness to endorse his Subscription
